AFFORDABLE HOUSING

Supports housing and development strategies that will improve neighborhoods without pushing community members out due to economic conditions. Backs anti-displacement policies and wants to ensure residents are able to participate in the development planning process. Supports raising minimum wage to $15 an hour.

His recreational marijuana bill proposes some revenue generated should go directly to affordable housing. Supports raising the minimum wage to $15 an hour. Helped secure a $400,000 state grant for the Manchester Citizens Corporation Renaissance Housing Project in the North Side.

RECREATIONAL MARIJUANA

Supports full legalization of marijuana "when done in a pragmatic and equitable way" and believes rules should be set in place so that the marketplace is "not dominated by the companies that have the resources to lobby legislators to pass the laws." Also supports the exoneration and expungements of those with marijuana-released convictions.

Introduced bills to legalize recreational marijuana in 2017-18 and 2019-20 legislative sessions. Those efforts were to expunge the records for people charged with non-violent, cannabis-related offenses. Supports a state recreational marijuana program that also creates funds to invest into disadvantaged communities. Says recreational and medical marijuana programs must lift up Black communities.

RENEWABLE ENERGY

Pushing for reinvestment of the Department of Environmental Protection and developing ways to "use water, wind, and other renewable energy." Decries the disproportionate air and water pollution that affects Black communities, and wants to "establish community health equity zones to eliminate the vast health disparities in our communities."

Deemed a House Environmental champion 100% record from Conservation Voters of Pennsylvania. A co-sponsor of House Bill 1425, a bill to transition Pennsylvania to 100% renewable energy by 2050. Has backed Gov. Wolf's efforts to create a severance tax on natural-gas drillers.
